

VSA Minnesota and Perpich Center for Arts Education present

Reaching All Learners Workshop

Join us for the third ReAL (Reaching All Learners) professional development workshop, "Universal Design for Learning: Designing & Implementing Quality Arts Residencies for Students of All Abilities."

- Learn how to create residencies and arts experiences from start to finish to reach students of all abilities using Universal Design for Learning (UDL)
- Participate in an arts lesson and explore how UDL elements were incorporated
- Redesign a lesson plan of your own so that it reflects elements of UDL
- Explore UDL resources applicable in a variety of arts learning settings
- Create a Personal Action Plan for including UDL in your future residency work

Workshop planners ask that attendees bring along a lesson plan to modify with UDL elements during the workshop.

Email or call Craig Dunn prior to noon on July 10 to register
612-332-3888 ext. 1 or craig@vsamn.org

The ReAL workshops are a joint effort by VSA Minnesota and Perpich's Arts & Cultural Context program with funding from VSA and Accessibility office of the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts

Janet Peters, Project Coordinator of Education and Assistive Technology at Great Lakes ADA Center will be our UDL instructor for the day & Lori Brink, teaching artist and artist coach will be the day's hands-on artist.
